As seven nominations have been received for the five available places, a ballot will be required, and I should be grateful if you would please ensure that your nominated representative entitled to record your club's vote at the AGM, is duly mandated to record your club's preferred candidate(s). Each club can vote for a maximum of five of the seven candidates, but there is no obligation to vote for five candidates.

To assist you in determining how you will vote, as all/some of the candidates may not be familiar or known to you, each of the seven candidates have been asked to provide a brief potted history of their cricketing background, and these are attached for your information.
